

Welcome to WarlordGamesCon 5 May 18th-20th 2018

Warlord Games presents WarlordGamesCon, an annual event for all games. This convention is for all types of gaming (Miniatures, Board Games, Role Playing). It is our intent to help our industry grow by putting on a show to bring together gamers, designers, and dealers. We will have both larger well known manufactures as well as the small game and miniature designers.

This year is our 5th Annual WarlordGamesCon, formally known as Warlord Games Open Games Day, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma!

Thanks to Tony Radford, Jeff Hunt, Steve and Sylvia Smith for direct help with this effort. Thank You to the Game Masters whose games make it possible and fun. Very big thanks to our Dealers and Manufacturers who supply us with so many wonderful items.

The theme for our convention and in life, have fun. Jon Russell

To all attendees: Have a great time at our convention and we hope to see you again next year.

To ensure everyone has a good and safe time while at the convention, some rules need to be laid out and followed.

No Solicitation: There will be no selling in the public areas of the hotel. All selling of products or services is restricted to the dealer's AREA. Selling of retail goods must be done as a vendor by purchasing a table in our vendor area.

As the Reed Center is also a Sheraton property, we have agreed to not compete with their restaurant and bar. The low entry fee and no charge for Game referees is a reflection of the hall discount we receive because of this policy. Please refrain from ordering Pizza delivered, or bringing in large quantities of food to consume on premises. We are providing pretty much non-stop coffee and water set-ups; however, you can still carry in your Big-Gulp with no problem. See our staff at the registration table for local dining/drinking options, and there are MANY to choose from.

Game Masters have the final say in their games or tournaments. The convention organizers will not involve themselves in rule disputes. However, game referees are required to treat all participants with respect, courtesy, and fairness.

Participants are expected to be courteous and respectful to other gamers, game masters and the convention staff. If you object to something that occurs within a game you are playing in, please state your case succinctly and let the game referee issue a ruling. Then live by it. And remember that younger gamers (and their parents) will be present, so please have a care what you say and do around them.

Convention Badges must be worn by all convention participants on the convention floor at ALL TIMES. No exceptions. WarlordGamesCon staff, Game Masters, and Game Participants are included.

No Smoking: No Smoking or Vaping of any type is allowed in the convention area, lobby, or hallways of the hotel.

No uniforms allowed during WarlordGamesCon, except for active-duty military personnel and on-duty law enforcement officers. Hats and costumes ARE allowed. However, Convention Staff reserves the right to request the removal of any apparel deemed offensive.

No weapons allowed except for law-enforcement and security personnel.

Prizes and Awards will be distributed by (some) Game Masters in a fair and impartial manner. In tournaments, the criteria for distributing prizes and awards will be explained before the event begins. In demonstration games, the Game Masters may award prizes randomly, or based by some objective criteria (such as the best display of tactics, worst die rolls, etc.) Game Masters should NOT keep any prizes or awards for themselves. However, the convention staff may distribute special prizes or awards to game hosts based on subjective criteria.

Title: BattleTech
GM: Billy Caldwell
Type: Board Game / Miniatures

Description: Battletech Bootcamp is an introductory game. Perfect for new players, even those without miniature or tabletop experience.

This demonstration is an hour long event that will introduce players to the Battletech universe and the tabletop game. The first 40 minutes or so of the event walks you through this information and the first few turns of the game, then you play the rest of the hour out while GMs are available to help and answer questions. This is the ideal starting point for new players to both Battletech or even the hobby of tabletop/miniature type games. Once you have completed this event players are encouraged to keep learning by playing in the Battletech Grinder. This event teaches you the current full rules of Battletech found in the rulebook Total Warfare. All supplies will be provided.

Battletech Grinder is a progressive free-for-all Battlemech combat, designed to transition players from the introductory scenario to the full scope and technology of the Battletech Total Warfare Core rule set.

Players begin with a light Battlemech, equipped with the most basic weapons. When that unit is destroyed in combat, the player re-enter the Grinder with a more powerful Battlemech equipped with more advanced weapons and new equipment This continues until the player commands the most advanced and deadly units in the game. Players can play as long as they wish, leave, and return during the scheduled event listing if they wish due to the continuous nature of the Grinder. Grinder can accommodate from 2 to 14 players. All materials are provided.

Title: Viking Raid
GM: Calvin Kinzer

Type: Miniatures
Description: It is a sunny day in 820 A.D. in the Sussex area of southeastern Britain. Pastoral Saxon villagers are going about their bucolic daily activities when suddenly a large number of ominous sails are spotted coming over the horizon in the nearby English Channel. Everyone knows immediately that their worst fear, a fleet of Viking raiders, is about to descend upon them. Frantic calls are hurriedly sent to the local Baron urging him to bring as much help as he can muster. As the long ships land on the beach, the villagers maneuver to form the first line of defense to slow down the enemy, while the Vikings move to burn as many crop fields, capture as much livestock, and plunder the villages of much loot and as many women as the can, then get back to their long ships before the much larger number of enraged Saxon reinforcements begins to overwhelm them. Players will take the part of a Viking chieftain or sub-chieftain, or a Saxon baron or sub-baron and seek to maneuver and fight the troops under their commands in order to achieve victory. The Vikings want mostly to destroy and steal and then get away, while the Saxons want to prevent this and kill as many of the invaders as possible. Which side will win? Only you can decide! So come and take up sword, spear and shield, and learn a little about why these were called the "Dark Ages." Then, if you find you have an interest, check out Warlord's new line of rules, figures and terrain for this period.

Title: Battle of the Greasy Grass, 1876
GM: Jeff Lawrence
Type: Miniatures
Description: Unknown to Custer, the group of Native Americans seen on his trail was actually leaving the encampment on the Big Horn and did not alert the village. Custer's scouts warned him about the size of the village, with Mitch Bouyer reportedly saying, "General, I have been with these Indians for 30 years, and this is the largest village I have ever heard of". Custer's overriding concern was that the Native American group would break up and scatter. The command began its approach to the village at noon and prepared to attack in full daylight.

Title: ALIENS – Marines, we are LEAVING
GM: Greg Dryanski
Type: Miniatures
Description: Welcome to the terraforming operation on planet LV-426, "Hadley's Hope". A marine platoon and several civilian contractors from Weyland-Yutani Corporation have encountered a xenomorph egg chamber. Unfortunately, one of the contractors -- Ellen Ripley -- has grabbed a flamethrower and torched the entire chamber. This has prompted a hostile reaction from the bugs, who race back to defend the hive. As the scenario starts, the platoon's motion detectors are going off the scale as the swarm begins to close in...

This is a scenario using the Aliens miniature game rules. Exit the alien hive with as many marines as possible still alive.
